

A N A S S A

Just the right blend of five-star luxury, classical architecture and seclusion, the enchanting Anassa is set within some of the most pristine countryside in the Mediterranean, in a location overlooking one of the finest beaches in Cyprus and beyond to the Akamas peninsula and the famous Baths of Aphrodite. Anassa means 'Queen' in ancient Greek, a fitting name for this truly majestic property. Guest villas exude the sleepy charm of an ancient Byzantine village; all rooms are extraordinarily spacious, and all have balconies with panoramic sea views. Some suites have private plunge pools and whirlpools on sea-facing terraces.

Accommodation

Total Number of rooms is 177.

Many different types of accommodation are available, ranging from extremely comfortable studio suites to lavish suites and four individually designed and tastefully appointed presidential suites. All rooms and suites are comfortably furnished and equipped with private bathroom, separate shower, vanity set, separate toilet and bidet. Each room has a balcony or terrace, suitable for private dining. Some suites also offer private plunge pool or outdoor whirlpool on their own private terrace.
