

Located on the outskirts of Limassol, with its own Marina, the St Raphael combines all the advantages of a carefully chosen, tranquil location: the calm sea at our doorstep and the colourful liveliness of Limassol just a few miles away. With convenient access to the island's modern road network, the hotel is hardly more than an hour's drive from any other coastal town, mountain village or tourist attraction. Of the 272 tasteful bedrooms, 216 are recently renovated and 56 are new executive rooms, with magnificent views over the Mediterranean Sea. A variety of banqueting and conference rooms offer facilities and space to cater for any type of event.
