

A lavish and stylish hotel in the heart of Limassol, Alasia offers a retreat from the bustle of the city into a world of luxury and wellbeing. This renovated building has been transformed by the Architect Sotiris Psaras into a surreal modern-like dream world, epitomizing a extravagance that is smart, pared down, and tempered. With the absence of “normal” walls and a floor-to-ceiling glass facade that diffuses natural light, Alasia’s indoor/outdoor lobby is a layered and sophisticated environment that is totally original.

Every single corner of the hotel is a combination of creative shapes and innovative material all in a transparent white color. Every one of the 60 rooms conveys elegance, friendliness and warmth mirrored by the earthy colored furnishing.

Alasia is an excellent hotel for long or short stays, for small exclusive groups wishing to explore the city of Limassol and the surroundings, as well as a perfect base for businessmen.
