

Quietly poised atop a hill that looks out over Mykonos town and the broad blue Aegean, Naia is a boutique hotel waiting to seduce you with its unique beauty and rare charm. Setting a new standard for exclusive luxury, it is wonderfully secluded and exceptional in all aspects of design, cuisine and service – an enthralling story in which you lose track of time, as magical chapters unfold throughout the day. Its striking architecture is a stylised interpretation of stone structures from ancient Mycenae, conferring a sense of wonder: you find yourself in a place that is both timeless and contemporary, surrounded by a host of international design classics and original artworks.

Naia's refinement derives from its meticulous yet discreet detailing in all things: 18 luxury suites are superbly designed and decorated with panache; an infinity pool touches the rim of the magnificent deck floating over iconic views; the gourmet restaurant with delectable Mediterranean cuisine adds a touch of molecular flair; and a pool bar with genuine international finesse is a point of intersection for the beau monde. Creative luxury meets attentive hospitality in this one-of-a-kind world, conceived for those who live life to the fullest. Naia, even to the most discerning connoisseur, is paradise regained.
